"Significant financial interests" are (1) an equity interest that when aggregated for the Investigator and Investigator's spouse and dependent children, meets both of the following tests: Exceeds $10,000 in value as determined through reference to public prices or other reasonable measures of fair market value, and represents more than five percent ownership interest in any single entity; or (2) salary, royalties, or other payments that when aggregated for the Investigator and the Investigator's spouse and dependent children over the next twelve months, are expected to exceed $10,000. The term does not include:

- Salary, royalties, or other remuneration from the Texas A&M University System;
- Income from seminars, lectures, or other teaching engagements sponsored by public or nonprofit entities;
- Income from service on advisory committees or review panels for public or nonprofit entities
